

IIIrd Peace Messenger Cities Assembly

New Haven, Connecticut USA, September 16 - 18, 1990

“The Role of the Cities for Peace in A Rapidly Changing World”

The 1990 Peace Messenger Cities Assembly (with contribution of the delegates from 35 cities), held in New Haven, Connecticut, from September 16-19, was the first such gathering held in North America. The assembly of Mayors and Diplomats explored opportunities for increased international co-operation in the areas of cultural exchange, education, international trade, economic development, and environmental protection. The delegates also used time to set an agenda for the 1990s. The New Haven assembly coincides with the International Day of Peace on September 18, and with the opening of the 45th session of the United Nations.
